

2.Management of Reporter ID

1.Expiration of Reporter ID

- Reporter ID not in use will be expired/deleted after a certain period.
 - Conditions and expiration dates are as listed below.
 - After Reporter ID Issuance and no use(no AFR filing with the Reporter ID), ID will be expired in 1year.
 - As a special setting, expiration date of all IDs issued BEFORE 2017/09/24 9:00 p.m. are set as "2018/10/06".
 - With each AFR filing, the expiration date of Reporter ID will be extended for 1year.
 - When Reporter ID is expired, Code for house BL/NVOCC code issued with that ID will also be expired.
- In case your customers' ID/House BL code expired, please simply apply for new Reporter ID.

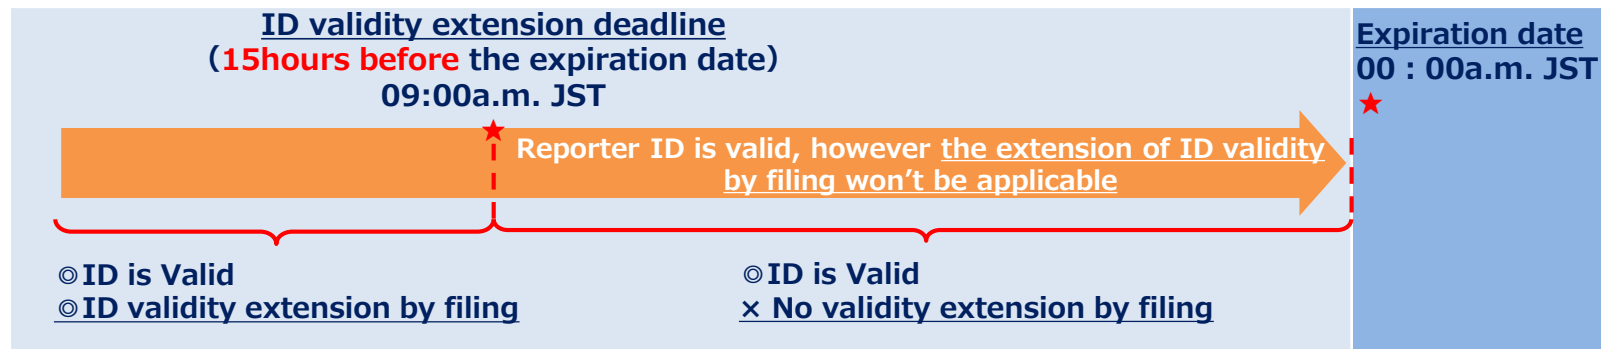

2.Reporter ID data reflection on NACCS system after March

- Timing of issued Reporter ID reflected to production environment is as follows.
 - IDs issued before 9 : 00 p.m. of the day → will be available at next day 00 : 00 a.m.
 - IDs issued after 9 : 00 p.m. of the day → will be available after the day after next day 00 : 00 a.m.

*All time shown above is Japan Standard Time.

3. Limitation for ID validity extension

As mentioned above, the expiration date of Reporter ID can be extended for 1 year with each AFR filing. However, there is a limitation for the ID validity extension as follows.

e.g.) Expiration date was 1/2 00 : 00am (JST)

*All time shown above is Japan Standard Time.